Sacred Heart Feast Day: We had a beautiful Mass at Sacred Heart Petone to celebrate our school feast day. Our students were a real credit to us all and enjoyed socialising with Sacred Heart Petone students at morning tea. The fun continued into the afternoon when our students played board games with each other. The Key competencies were certainly well and truly alive when the children were playing Board games – Thinking, Managing self, Participating and contributing, Relating to others, Understanding language symbols and text.

Special thanks to Alex W (Rm 10) who represented our school at the Parish Feast Day Mass on Friday evening.

Some of us played with cards and we enjoyed playing the new Logo board game.

There is parking on Molesworth Street or in the carpark building under the office of the Archdiocese. Special thanks for your attention and positive consideration to this matter.

Matariki is the Māori name for the cluster of stars also known as the Pleiades. It rises in mid-winter and for many Māori, it heralds the start of a new year. Traditionally, it was a time for remembering those who have passed away, and celebrating new life.

Take a look at our display in the cloak bay outside Rm 1.

Fr James

Here is a poem written by Mother Teresa of Calcutta, now a Saint for all of us. It would look great on the fridge door:

People are often unreasonable, illogical, and self-centred.
Forgive them anyway.
If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives.
Be kind anyway.
If you are successful, you will win some false friends and some true enemies.
Succeed anyway.
If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you.
Be honest and frank anyway.
What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight.
Build anyway.
If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous.
Be happy anyway.
The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow.
Do good anyway.
Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough.

In the final analysis, it is between you and God.
It was never between you and them anyway.
