

INTRODUCING OUR BOARD OF TRUSTEES:

Chairperson: Frank McLaughlin

Parent Rep: Dan Bolger

Kaye Stirling (Parent Rep) married to Nigel, we have 2 children at Sacred Heart, Oliver and Annabelle. We live in the parish and attend the Cathedral. I enjoy my involvement with the school as a parent tutor for reading and organiser of summer soccer teams. I have previously served on the Parents and Friends Committee. I practised as a lawyer for almost 20 years, spending 10 years as a partner in a Wellington firm. I now work part time as a Tenancy Tribunal Adjudicator.

Fr James Lyons (Proprietor's Rep) came to the Cathedral Parish in 2008 and, as parish priest, is a member of the School Board. He was previously parish priest in Lower Hutt and Heretaunga where, as well as the primary schools, he served on the Boards of St Bernard's and Sacred Heart colleges. Although the majority of our families reside in other parishes, Fr James recognises the school as an integral part of the Cathedral Parish and welcomes involvement from any of our families. He also welcomes your contact and gets to know the children through regular class visits.

Sera Vatuloka (Parent Rep) was born in Fiji migrating to New Zealand at the age of 6. Her daughter Lynda is currently in the middle school. Sera was educated in Wellington and is a graduate of Victoria University of Wellington. She is an educator at VUW working having worked closely Maori & Pasifika students. Recently Sera has taken on a role at Victoria International working with New Zealand Scholarship students. Sera is passionate about guiding and supporting Pasifika students to reach their full educational potential.

Joseph Mina (Parent Rep) I'm Joseph, father to year 7 student – Ayesha. An engineer by training, I work in the IT sector specializing in Project Governance and Management. I'm keenly interested in the holistic development of our Student, Teachers and the Sacred Heart community. And would like to ensure that Sacred Heart has one of the best plans in place to sustain the development of our children's ever-hungry minds, physical well-being and character development.

Trudy Lagolago (Proprietor's Rep) Hello my name is Trudy and I joined the Board as a Proprietor's Appointee in 2014. Together with my husband Roy, we have two children at Sacred Heart Cathedral school and our youngest will be joining in 2018. My current work is in Finance, HR, programme analysis and support. There is a good Samoan proverb which says "Ole ala ile pule ole tautua" and this means, the path to leadership is through service. I enjoy serving our school and archdiocese through the positive work of our Board of Trustees.

Suzanne Adair (Proprietor's Rep) My name is Suzanne Adair and my husband, Matthew, and I have three children (Elizabeth, Alice and James) at Sacred Heart Cathedral School. Our youngest child, Charles, will start school in 2019. I was appointed to the Board of Trustees as a proprietor's appointee in 2016. I am also involved in the Friends of Sacred Heart Committee. My work background is in financial services, funds and taxation as a lawyer. We returned to live in Wellington in 2015 after having lived in Singapore, London and Melbourne for 13 years.
