Whakakāhuria te hunga tahanga. Clothe the naked

Pope Francis has taken us all on an amazing journey in the Jubilee Year of Mercy, opening doors of reconciliation and mercy in so many ways. There has been such a generous response from you all to his call to prayer and action through the spiritual and corporal works of Mercy.

As the year comes to a close, I encourage you all to keep the doors of mercy open – in your families, schools, parishes, in your places of work– wherever you hear people crying out for the mercy of God. Some voices may be difficult to hear – keep listening! Please keep the doors of mercy always open!
 I te wairua atawhai – in the spirit of mercy
